River Gipping, Stowmarket

In keeping with its heritage as a traditional market town, Stowmarket continues to hold a twice-weekly street market featuring an eclectic range of stalls and vendors. Since the town was first granted a market charter in July 1347, this iconic outdoor market has continued to serve shoppers with fresh local produce, homewares, clothing and artisan gifts.

Residents of Pinewood Grange will delight in the beauty of its surroundings, overlooking a stream, wildlife area and attractive recreation park. A footpath and cycleway links nearby Cedar Primary School to Stowmarket town centre, while several parks and playgrounds can be found dotted around the area.

Stowmarket itself offers countless leisure opportunities just a 5-minute drive from home. The town's former Corn Exchange recently underwent a £1 million refurbishment to become a music venue, art gallery and theatre. History enthusiasts will enjoy a visit to the impressive Museum of East Anglian Life, with 17 historic buildings set in 75 acres of picturesque countryside.

Those leading active lifestyles can find a range of sports centres in the town, including gyms, swimming pools, climbing walls and group fitness studios, as well as a bowling green and artificial turf football pitch. Avid golfers can perfect their game at Stowmarket Golf Club, just a 10-minute drive away, offering an 18-hole parkland.

A perfect setting for families, Pinewood Grange enjoys close proximity to a range of schools, from infant care through to further education.
